Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.

The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Oct. 11, 1866.

For the Sentinel.

That the sensitive nerves of some of our dreadfully patriotic fellow citizens may not be shocked, and to save all such precious patriots from reporting this people to the New York Tribune as still unreconstructed, intensely rebellious, and entirely unrepentant, be it known, that the following three Stanzas have no reference whatever to our martyred heroes, so-called, nor to Sherman's army, nor to Thad. Stevens. The martyrs were all Spaniards—the tyrants French and Italians. The Stanzas were written by one Thomas Campbell, a full-blooded Englishman, and first published in London, in the year of Grace 1824. The Post had not the least allusion to the Southern Confederacy, nor Old Point prison, nor Jefferson Davis.

"Brave men who at the Trocadero fell
Beside your cannons, conquered not, though slain,
There is a victory in dying well
For Freedom,—and ye have not died in vain;
For come what may, there shall be hearts in Spain
To honor, ay embrace your martyred lot,
Cursing the Bigot's and the Bourbon's chain,
And looking on your graves, though trophied not,
As holier hallowed ground than priests could make the spot

Yet laugh not in your carnival of crime
Too proudly, ye oppressors!—Spain was free,
Her soil has felt the foot-prints, and her clime
Been winnowed by the wings of Liberty;
And those, even parting, scatter as they flee
Thoughts—influences, to live in hearts unborn,
Opinions that shall wrench the prison key
From Persecution—shew her mask off-torn,
And tramp her blonted head beneath the foot of scorn.

Glory to them that die in this great cause!
Kings, Bigots, can inflict no brand of shame,
Or shape of death, to shroud them from applause;—
No!—manglers of the martyr's earthly frame!
Your hangman fingers cannot touch his fame.
Stiff in your prostrate land there shall be some
Proud hearts, the shrines of freedom's vestal flame,
Long trains of ill may pass unheeded, dumb,
But Vengeance is behind, and Justice is to come."

South Carolina—Important Order by Gen. Sickles.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 8.—Major General Sickles has issued an order providing—

First. That all cases be remitted to the United States Courts of which they have legal cognizance.

Second. That inasmuch as the State courts are now open to all persons, with equal civil rights therein, without distinction of color, all cases, civil and criminal, in which the parties [illegible] tribunals; and civilians now in military [illegible] will be surrendered to the sheriff of the district in which the alleged offenses were committed.

Third. Military provost courts will be discontinued in the several districts as soon as the district courts are organized, excepting at Hilton Head and certain sea islands.

Fourth. The jails will be restored to the sheriffs.

Fifth. Corporeal punishment is prohibited, except in the case of minors.

Sixth. The State laws against vagrancy may be enforced.

Seventh. No prosecution or suit will be allowed against Federal officers or soldiers for acts heretofore done in a military capacity.

The eight and ninth sections provide that district commanders shall report any failure of the civil tribunals to give due protection to persons and property; and shall arrest persons charged with offenses against the inhabitants of the United States, irrespective of color, when the civil authorities fail to do so.

Tenth. District commanders are enjoined to extend due facilities and protection, as heretofore, to the Freedmen's Bureau agents.

The eleventh section commends to the authorities and people of South Carolina the patient consideration and impartial execution of the laws toward the class of persons recently clothed with civil rights, so that no occasion may hereafter arise for the exercise of the military authority in matters of ordinary civil administration concerning the freed people.

Capital Ghost Story.

Dedicated in an especial manner to all Newspaper Readers.—That apparitions do not always wander without sufficient cause is proved by the well attested fact which we give below:

"Last Tuesday fortnight, as Mrs. ———, (a lady of rather literary taste and studious habits,) sat reading in her drawing room; the clock on the mantle-peice struck twelve! As the last stroke reverberated through the apartments, the door was flung wide open! in the act of raising her head to repel the intruder (unrung for) of her servant, her eye rested on the form of her late husband! she screamed and fell senseless on the carpet! This brought up such members of the family as had not retired to rest; restoratives were administered, and when Mrs. ——— had regained her suspended faculties, and being a woman of strong mind and highly cultivated intellect, she felt disposed to consider the whole distress she had undergone as the result of certain associations between the melancholy tale she had been perusing and her late loss, operating on a partially deranged nervous system. She, however, considered it advisable that her maid servant should repose in her chamber, lest any return of what she considered a nervous affection should distress herself and alarm the family. Last Tuesday night, feeling stronger and in better spirits than she had been for several months past, Mrs. ——— dispensed with the presence of her attendant, retiring alone to her chamber, went to bed a little before ten o'clock. Exactly as the clock struck twelve she was awakened from sleep, and distinctly beheld the apparition she had before seen, advancing from the table, (on which stood her night lamp,) till it stood opposite to and drew aside the curtains of her bed. She describes her very blood retreating with icy chillness to her heart from every vein. The countenance of her beloved in life wore not its benevolent aspect; the eyes once beaming with affection were now fixed with stern regard on the trembling half-dissolved being, who, with the courage of desperation, thus abjured him, "Charles! dear Charles! why are you come again?"

"Jessie," slowly and solemny aspurated the shadowy form, waving in his hand a small roll of writing paper, "Jessie, pay my newspaper accounts and let me rest in peace.!"

Augustus Dickens, brother of Charles Dickens, the novelist, lately in the land department of the Illinois Central railroad, died in Chicago sunday.

THE DEAD ALIVE—THE LAST PRISONER.—A worthy family in Sussex county, named Adkins, have, for more than a year, mourned as dead their son, who was captured by the enemy during the battle just preceding the fall of the city. Months having elapsed after the surrender without intelligence of him, his friends finally gave up all hope, and the respect of funeral services was paid to his memory. A few days ago a letter received from Washington announced young Adkins' safety and health. When taken, he was carried to Fort Delaware, whence, after his persistence in refusing to take the oath, he was removed to prison in Washington city, D. C., where, until his recent release, he was denied all communication with the outside world.

We have seen the last Confederate prisoner announced a dozen times, but suppose that this gentleman's claim to that title will be undisputed.—Petersburg Index.

THE FAMOUS JENNINGS' ESTATE.—We understand that the various branches of the Jennings and Jamison families of New England have organized an association for the purpose of prosecuting their claims to the estate of the late William Jennings Esq. of Suffolk, England, valued at $49,000,000 in gold. We are assured that no doubt exists of the justness of the claims, or of the practicability of enforging them. The able counsel of the association, (Messrs. Jewett and Norris, of Boston,) have taken such steps and made such progress that it is probable that this immense pile will reach the hands of its American owners during the year 1867.—Mr. Jewett sails for Europe in the interests of this family this month, to be followed by Mr. Norris in March, '67.

Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Oct. 11, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
Made "No Further Amendments."

FOR GOVERNOR.
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

The Northern Elections.

The telegraph has furnished us sufficient information to enable us to pronounce, with almost entire certainty, that the elections which were held on Tuesday, in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa, have resulted disastrously to the friends of Constitutional Union.

In Pennsylvania, the Radicals have elected at least eighteen out of the twenty-four Congressmen, to which the State is entitled. In the last Congress, the delegation stood eighteen to six.

In Ohio, in the late Congress, the delegation consisted of seventeen Republicans and two Democrats or Conservatives. Its complexion remains probably the same.

Indiana had nine Radicals to two Conservatives in the late Congress. The returns do not indicate precisely the present proportion. It is, in all likelihood, unaltered.

The returns from Iowa are not sufficient to justify a positive statement as to the Congressional delegation. In the recent Congress her representation was unanimously Radical, and it may fairly be assumed that no change for the better has been effected.

There is one noticeable feature in the general results in each of the States, as far as ascertained, viz: That the Radical majorities, as compared with the last election, are almost invariably reduced, both in the Congressional Districts and on the State tickets. That fact, however, affords but little comfort. The character of the next Congress is established, beyond question, as being as hopelessly Radical as, if not more so than, its predecessor, which was so potent for mischief and evil.

While we may, at times, have entertained faint hopes—the wish, mainly, being father to the thought—that such changes might be accomplished in the elections just passed as would reduce the Radical majority in Congress to the extent that the Executive veto, that great bulwark against the tyranny of numbers, might be effective, our readers will bear us out in the assertion, that we have never confidently anticipated such a result, but, on the contrary, have constantly advised them, as it behooves us now, with manly composure and philosophic or Christian serenity, to look at the situation as it presents itself.

It were a profitless speculation to enquire into the causes of the results before us. We may affirm, however, with perfect confidence, that the great, vital and absorbing issue really involved, the preservation and maintenance of Constitutional Union, with the inherent and reserved rights of each of the States unimpaired, has not been fully presented to the Northern mind or been permitted to enter the discussions of the hour. In but few instances, whether of journalistic or popular discussion, has the Constitutional Amendment, for example, been urged in its true bearing and effects upon the destiny and character of the government and the liberties of each and all of the States, North as well as South. Passion and excitement have dethroned reason and temperance.—Inflammatory appeals to the prejudices engendered during the war, and unfortunately not yet obliterated, have usurped the place of argument and reason. The old clamor against "copperhead," "rebel" and "traitor," has been resorted to with tremendous effect. And finally, money, without stint or limit, has been employed to secure the venal, and intimidation used to frighten the timorous, by the desperate men in power, who, without power, would speedily be "whistled down the wind" of public scorn and contempt. Could the honest masses at the North be made to see, or permitted to see, as we, who are the devoted objects of an insatiate malignity, do most sensitively and fearfully see the dangers to the government, to the States, to the people, and to civil liberty itself, that lurk beneath the Radical theory of reconstruction, as embodied especially in the Howard amendment, we do not for a moment doubt that they would speedily reverse their decision. The details of that measure can no more stand the test of intelligent analysis and calm investigation than air can defy the potent and penetrating force of a sunbeam.

But, as we have said, all this speculation is immaterial now. We must deal with facts as they exist. This is the era of violence and passion. Powerless to control it, we can at least preserve dignity and honor; for, as has been well said, though our rights may be outraged by others, their are in our own keeping. A tremendous effort will now be made to persuade our people that it will be better to yield in the matter of the Howard amendment, as it we had the slightest guarantee that its adoption would secure restoration, as if, on the other hand, all the indications were not decidedly the reverse, and as if all the concessions we have heretofore made had not taught their own lessons. To all such suggestions, our advice to our fellow citizens is to oppose a good conscience, a quiet discharge of the every day duties of life, and as tranquil a pursuit of their State and individual interests as the natural apprehensions of the times will admit. Expediency is one thing,—right, truth and conscience are another. If we had positive and unqualified assurances that our assent in this matter would secure the rights and privileges which are so wrongfully withheld from us, and if that assent involved no surrender of honor and moral manhood, we hould say give it. But when a more than doubtful expediency is opposed by conscientious conviction and the eternal principles of truth and justice, there can be no hesitancy which to adhere to. For one, we can never counsel that which we believe to be a great wickedness and wrong. If we fall in the advocacy of what we believe to be right, it will be what better men have endured before us. Men have died at the stake for conscience sake, long before the present day of lauded civilization and enlightenment.

After all, it may be that the Radical leaders, relieved of their apprehension of losing the reins of power, may abate their passion. The mad lust for office appeased, they may shrink back ere they precipitate the country over the precipice, to the brink of which they have brought it. We can only wait and see.

North Carolina speaks one week from to day. Her's will be the first Southern voice that gives its utterance. Let it yield no doubtful sound. Let us re-elect, by a nearly unanimous vote, our present consistent Union Governor. Let us say, in substance: "We are prepared to submit to whatever is put upon us. We have neither the power nor the disposition to resist. But as men, as white men, as American citizens, as a conquered people, if you will, but on that account entitled to generous and magnanimous treatment, as lovers of liberty, as friends of free government, we protest against the imposition of degrading and destructive conditions. We cannot voluntarily debase and ruin ourselves.—Upon your shoulders must rest the terrible responsibility." Having said this, let us await, with what patience we may, and with a firm reliance upon Providence, the dispensations, good or evil, that may be in store for us. This is the prompting alike of wisdom, manhood and self-respect.

People of North Carolina! To your duty!

A Remarkable Thing.

The Northern States are now seriously and alarmingly convulsed, from Maine to Iowa, with a fierce political contest. Party rancour and political excitement in the North never ran higher than at present. The contest for political ascendancy never engrossed more time, excited more bitterness, or wasted more money, than now. Much of this excitement, too, relates to the condition and status of the poor, down-trodden South. What shall be done with the "rebels" and the "rebel States," has set the North in a blaze. Hot words and menacing threats indicate war to the knife.

Yet, strange to say, in the South all is quiet and almost stolid indifference. Our people are so poor, feel so keenly the ruin which has befallen them, and are so intent upon making bread and to recover somewhat from the ruin, they are ignorant of the storm which is raging at the North. We are inclined to think, not reads a newspaper. Thousands hardly know that the North is concerning itself a great about the poor South. Many do not remember that there is an election in North Carolina next Thursday for Governor and members of the Legislature. They have heard that Jonathan Worth is Governor and they are content that he should be. They have heard that such and such persons are talked of for the Legislature, but not a fig do they care who goes, so they don't lay the taxes too high or let the Sheriff come and take their last cow. Congress is concerned that only loyal men vote or hold office. But if Congress would just let them alone, and let them make bread for their families, and be moderate in laying taxes, there are thousands of people in North Carolina who would gladly make a bargain with Congress never to cast another vote, never to hold an office and never meddle with politics again, so it would protect them from personal damage and injury.

This is no fancy picture. It is precisely what thousands feel. They are so disgusted and sick of politicians and demagogues, so tired out with getting back into the Union, with war and commotion, and niggers and elections, they would strike a bargain to-day, on the above terms. They ask just to be let alone, and Congress may dismiss all its fears about rebels or rebeldom ever disturbing the country again.

We have met a number of persons recently, who could tell us absolutely nothing about the views and feelings of the people in their Counties, in regard to general politics, either State or National, except that they were generally for Gov. Worth, said they were too poor to pay taxes, and hoped that the country would soon be quiet and prosperous. As to what the Legislature ought to do, except to keep poor debtors from being ruined and to lay on light taxes, they were not at all concerned. As to Congress, they seem to think it will do what it pleases and their reliance for safety seems to be more upon God than upon that body.

An intelligent and comfortable farmer from a County, not far distant, informed us, on yesterday, that he did not know who the candidates were, though the election is only one week off.

"The Superior Court at Raleigh, N. C., is engaged in the trial of Rufus and James Hodge for the alleged murder of John Sturdivant.—The Attorney General being related to the prisoners, Hon. Thomas Ewing, Col. E. G. Haywood and Mr. W. S. Mason appeared for the State.—Messrs. B. F. Moore, S. F. Phillips and R. H. Battle, Jr., appeared for the prisoners."

Our cotemporary, the Petersburg Express, makes a queer blunder in the above. We presume it must have been strongly and recently impressed with the powerful letter of Hon. Thos. Ewing, of Ohio, in support of the President's policy, or the strong speech of Gen. Ewing, at Cleveland. It was the Hon. Thomas Bragg, of this city, who was associated with Col. Haywood and Mr. Mason, in the prosecution for the State. By the way, Gov. Bragg, in his argument in this cause, showed that the strength of his intellect, and his ability as an advocate, have been invigorated by his ripened experience.—Indeed, the counsel on both sides did themselves and their clients full justice.

A project to invite Henry Ward Beecher to speak in Memphis, is opposed by the Avalanche, who has no faith in the reverend gentleman.

State and Individual Debts.

During the canvass for the Legislature in this State, we have been fully aware that the discussions, in many counties, have very largely elaborated the important issue of repudiation, both of State and individual debts. Many wild and vicious doctrines have been enunciated and much serious error has been inculcated upon the hustings. Credit, both State and individual, is so sensitive, so ticklish a thing, we have refrained from its discussion, for the simple reason that even the announcement of the existence of a heated discussion upon that subject might seriously affect not only State but individual credit. We have been anxious to avoid this result, feeling confident that, when the proper time arrived, our people could be easily set right on so momentous a subject.

If North Carolina be a State in the Union, and has been in spite of the war, as we believe is the case, and if her Federal relations can be reconciled and adjusted upon any fair, honorable and safe foundation, which does not block her way to recuperation and prosperity, she will pay every dollar she owes! So long as she is a State and her people desire peaceful, honorable and amicable relations with the Union, as we know they do, she will never repudiate her debt, principal or interest. In her present crippled pecuniary condition, and in the unsettled state of our national affairs, she cannot do what she is anxious to do. Her creditors must bear with her under such circumstances. She will pay when she can. Her people cannot repudiate their private debts if they would, nor will they violate their public obligations. But they, as well as the State, need forbearance and sympathy. They will pay when they can.

But if North Carolina be not a State of the Union, but a conquered province or territory, and if her people are the subjects of an inexorable tyranny, in such a case Heaven only can tell what they can do. In the mean time, let nothing be said or done, which savors of recklessness, or such a depth of demoralization as would indicate that our people can be driven to forfeit the good name of our honest old State!

The Northern Democracy.

The result of the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa are known.—It is what has been anticipated for some time, except among the Northern Democracy,—who became more confident towards the close,—who seem to have done their whole duty in the canvass, in support of the Constitution and the Union and the policy of the President, and have in many cases greatly reduced the large majorities of the Radical or Congressional Republicans. If they have failed in accomplishing their aims, it has not been owing to the unsoundness of their views, or to their want of canvass. Unfortunately, some of their candidates, though men of high repute among the Democrats, and who would have done the country noble service if elected, could not command the votes of the conservative Republicans, except to a limited extent. The South, however, owes the Northern Democracy a debt of gratitude for their noble defence of sound principles, and for the earnest sympathy which they evince for the Southern people. Truth still lies crushed and bleeding under the iron hoof of partizan and fanatical radicalism, but it will rise again and triumph at last.

Let the Southern people, under all these discouragements, be true to themselves and to the principles of the Constitution and the Union.—The clouds look portentous, and the threats and violence of the dominant party make weak men quail and quiver, but let the true men of the South, those who truly reverence the Constitution and desire the preservation of the Union, first find the path of duty, of right and justice, and then let them walk in it, "though the Heavens fall."

County Candidates.

Messrs. M. A. Bledsoe and Wiley D. Jones are candidates for the Senate, and Messrs. J. P. H. Russ, Calvin J. Rogers, Robert S. Perry, J. J. Overby, Green H. Alford and T. L. Banks are candidates for the Commons.

Mr. Rogers, who has been prevented by the claim of his personal affairs, from attending the precincts with the other candidates for several days, joined them to-day at Lynn's, and will continue the canvass to its close.

The Standard endorses and has a commendatory word only for Messrs. Jones, Alford and Banks. From this preference it would appear that it casts the rest over-board. Messrs. Bledsoe, Russ, Perry, Rogers and Overby have declared their unequivocal opposition to the Howard amendment and their purpose to vote for no one who does support it. Messrs. Jones and Alford have announced that they are opposed to it, but, we learn, are not unequivocally pledged not to vote for it under certain circumstances, while Dr. Banks declines to commit himself on it, pro or con.

The sentiment of this county is largely in opposition to the amendment. It is a vital question at this crisis, and we regard it of the first importance to elect men who can be relied upon as undoubted anti-Howard amendment men.

COMPLAINTS.—Our cotemporary, the Wilmington Journal, informs us by telegraph that it seldom gets the Sentinel. We regret this.—In order that our friends of the Journal and Dispatch might get the Sentinel in advance of the mail, we have been sending it to them regularly by Express. We shall hereafter send it by mail.

The New York Times has published conclusive proofs of its own assertion, that the Radicals are under no pledge to admit the Southern representation, on condition of our adoption of the Constitutional amendment; but on the contrary have repudiated any such commitment.—Yet it calls upon the South day after day to adopt that amendment, as the condition of admission, and threatens us with severer exactions if we prove contumacious. Such is Raymond

For the Sentinel.

To the People of North Carolina:

You expected your election for Governor and the Legislature at the usual time last August. Had it then taken place, the re-election of Governor Worth was a conceded fact. Such was the position that he then had with the people that no one could be found to oppose him. The public in advance declared his re-election by a large majority.

When the late Convention changed the time of election to October, there were not a few of Holden's "strikers," who chuckled at the idea of "something turning up before October" to defeat Gov. Worth.

"The "October sun" is shining. Jonathan Worth is stronger in October than he was in August. Let Holden and similar venomous creatures bite themselves and die.

People of the State! A true lover of right and justice appeals to you to give to Jonathan Worth a full vote on the day of election.

Letter From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

The Pressure on the President to Endorse the Constitutional Amendment---Different Speculations on the Subject---The next Annual Message to Congress---General Dix to look into our Relations with France Affecting Mexico.

WASHINGTON, October 8, 1866.

In case the elections, which occur to-morrow, give very strong majorities in favor of the Congressional plan of reconstruction, and against the policy of the President, there will be a strenuous effort made to induce the Executive to recommend the adoption of the constitutional amendment by the Southern States. In fact, there have already been several overtures made on this score; but I am confident that so far none have been successful. The President is heartily opposed to the measure, and his objections have not become less on account of the length of time it has been before the country. I have been astonished to hear the prominent conservative Republicans, who have at least made a show of endorsing the policy of the Administration, and who have occupied positions of more than ordinary responsibility, predict such a move on the political board. They argue that as the President has made so many and repeated assertions of his confidence in the people, he will shape his course by what they decide in these fall elections. On the other hand, intimate friends of the President, who enjoy confidential relations with him, deny all reports that he will in any degree endorse the constitutional amendment. It is hardly probable that the plan he intends pursuing from the new stand-point of the present elections, will be fore-shadowed in advance of the annual message to Congress, which will be without doubt the most important document of the kind which has yet been submitted. Our foreign as well as domestic relations will, it is said, be discussed in new and more important lights than have yet been suggested.

It is though that the departure of General Dix for France, which takes place in the latter part of the present month, will have an effect upon our present relations with that country, and our ministers are predicting some new phase in Mexican matters to result from his presence at the French Court.

North Carolina Unionists.

The character of the support given to the constitutional amendment in the Southern States is curiously illustrated in North Carolina. We exposed, a day or two since, the record of the sundry gentlemen of the South who are very noisy advocates of negro suffrage, and in North Carolina Governor Holden is now undertaking to run General Dockery on the amendment basis, despite General Dockery's declination. The latter, however, advocates the amendment, not per se, but as a means of getting back into the Union.

Holden undertakes to make out that General Dockery is a better Union man than Governor Worth, though both gentlemen were State Senators in December, 1860, and the General voted for a proposition to put $300,000 at the service of the secession Government, and Governor Worth, with but two others, opposed it; and in May, 1861, on the final passage of the bill calling the secession convention, General Dockery voted aye, and Governor Worth voted no. And, after the war was fairly inaugurated, while both sustained their section, Governor Worth advoted peace, on the basis of the Union, while the General repudiated all idea of reconstruction. Yet, forsooth, now, because General Dockery is willing to put an indignity on his section, in the hope of winning a Congressional exemption, he is a better Union man than one whose fidelity was a proverb!

There is a small party in North Carolina who would accept the amendment as a means of restoration, but hardly a man that is intrinsically in favor of it. With the bulk of the people it is extremely unpopular, and some, who would not otherwise much oppose it, repudiate it, on the ground that it is an insult to ask them to ratify an amendment proposed by a Congress which excludes them from representation.—Nat. Intelligencer.

The steamship Evening Star, of the New York Mail Steamship Company, which left New York on the 29th ult., with an assorted cargo and two hundred and fifty cabin and steerage passengers, and a crew of seventy men, foundered at sea, one hundred and eighty miles east of Tybee (Savannah) Light, on the night of the 1st inst. The news was conveyed to New York via Savannah, Georgia, and was obtained from two of the rescued passengers who had arrived at Savannah. Another boat had arrived at Fernandina, Florida, having on board the purser and chief engineer of the ship. Captain Knapp, commanding the vessel, was drowned. The schooner S. J. Waring, which has arrived at Fernandina, Florida, has some of the rescued crew and passengers on board, but how many is not stated. The rest are supposed to have been lost.

Mob in Baltimore.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE PETERSBURG INDEX.]

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10, 2 A. M.—The United States flag over the Union Conservative headquarters was torn down and trampled under foot by a Radical mob, and the police looked on approvingly.

The office of the Transcript, a Democratic evening paper, was invaded and the type thrown into the street.

A notorious courtezan in Cincinati, named Mrs. Thomas, died in that city recently, bequeathing her entire fortune of $60,000 to charitable institutions.

Mrs. Lander, widow of the Ball's Bluff General, appears in drama at Winter Garden next week. She is considered the best actress now living, except Charlotte Cushman.

It is strange to see that Connecticut has become a tobacco growing State. Such is the fact. Her journals speak of large crops, one county, it is estimated, producing 500,000 lbs. this season. This shows that natural products, if properly taken care of, will adapt themselves in some degree to soil and climate.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The State Librarian requests the prompt return of books borrowed from the Law Library.

W. H. Crow, General Agent of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, Hartford, announces the prompt payment of another loss of $5,000. This, together with other recent instances of the same sort, are the best practical illustrations of the benefits of life insurance in such reliable institutions as the Ætna.

Mrs. Gen. Robert Ransom, of Wilmington, has opened a Seminary in that City. Mrs. R. is herself a lady of the highest cultivation, and has secured the services of a corps of competent and accomplished assistants. We are sure that her Seminary will be conducted upon a scale, and in a manner, that will ensure educational advantages, moral and intellectual, of the very first order.

White house-keeper and colored cook wanted: Apply to Mrs. W. J. Clarke, at Mrs. H. W. Miller's.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the Yarborough Hotel, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given. The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing, should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

HEAVY RAINS.—"The oldest inhabitant" does not remember so violent a rain as that which fell on yesterday and last night. We fear that much damage has been done to the mills, and perhaps bridges, as the streams everywhere must be greatly swollen. We learn that the small branch running across the road, near what is known as the "pigeon-house," about a mile and a half North of the city, was so swollen that a countryman, in endeavoring to ford it, had his horse drowned, and only escaped himself by swimming.

We understand that the culvert on the Railroad, in rear of Gen. Cox's residence, was broken down by the flood of water.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Oct. 10, 1866.—J. R. Doughty, T. King, Mrs. King, N. C.; T. D. Martin and Lady, Raleigh; Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Ainesworth, Company Shops; F. M. Moore, C. Churchhill, Chatham; R. Jones, L. McCleese, S. C.

THE HENDERSON FAIR.—We hope that our people, and the farmers especially, in all the contiguous counties, will not fail to remember that the eighth annual Fair of the Granville Agricultural Society will take place on the 17th, 18th, and 19th inst., at Henderson. This Society deserves great credit for having been the first, after the havoc of war, to re-inaugurate these agricultural festivals. We hope to see their public spirit appreciated by a large attendance, and a goodly display of articles and animals for exhibition, and their commendable example generally imitated. They have arranged a most liberal schedule of premiums, and have made the most extensive arrangements, every way, to render the entire occasion pleasant and attractive. Col. S. S. Royster is President of the Association and Capt. A. B. Andrews is to be Chief Marshal for the occasion, assisted by Dr. V. E. Turner, Cols. W. H. Yarboro and T. L. Jones, and W. H. Young, Jr., and W. D. Royster, Esqs.—A band of music will be in attendance,—the "Salisbury band," we believe, than which there are few better in the South. We will publish, to-morrow, the programme of proceedings for each day.

By the way, stepping into Simpson's, Fayetteville Street, on yesterday, we saw some specimens of pyramidal and ornamented cake, which he is getting up in his best style, for a party that is to come off on one of the evenings of the fair. The young folks of both sexes will take notice.

MILITARY.—We observe in the Washington papers a long list of appointments in the new regular regiments authorized by the army bill passed at the late session of Congress. It may be of interest to some of our readers to know the new status of some of the former military commandants, whose headquarters were in this city, viz:

Colonels of Infantry—Brvt. Maj. Gen. (formerly) T. H. Ruger and J. C. Robinson.

Lt-Col. of Infantry—Former Brig. Gen. M. D. Hardin.

A Card.

The Ladies of the "Memorial Association of Wake County" tender their thanks to the ladies and gentlemen of New Hope, and its vicinity, for the material aid afforded in the accomplishment of our noble purpose. The spirit which prompted so patriotic an effort in our behalf is worthy of emulation.

Shall the noble spirits who, for four long years of hardships and privations, bore our beloved banner through storms of grape and canister, sleep on the fields uncared for and unknown? Can we allow their names forever to be obliterated from the tablets of our memory?

In a land impoverished as ours, we cannot, without aid, guard these graves from exposure and disturbance, but, with the cordial co-operation of those who have suffered in the same cause, more can be accomplished. We may remove to the sacred spot designed for their receptacle the remains of those now scattered in different localities around our city, and erect some enduring tribute to their memory.

Such is our design. Let us all rally in this noble undertaking, and consider it a pleasure and privilege to aid in its accomplishment.

MRS. L. O'B BRANCH, Pres. L. M. A.

What Say the "Pioneer" and "Tar-Heel" Clubs?

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The inefficiency of our City Fire Department demands prompt attention, and while considering the manly and athletic appearance of the young men who constitute our Base Ball Clubs, and their character for morality and generous impulses, I was led to conclude that if they could be induced to take charge of the Fire Department of Raleigh it would add greatly to the security of our property and reduce the high rates of insurance.

I respectfully suggest that our city fathers employ the celebrated pump-maker at Salem, N. C., to put our pumps in good repair and to turn over the Fire Apparatus to the "Pioneer" and "Tar-Heel" Clubs.

They should be uniformed, and suitable prizes offered, semi-annually or quarterly, for skill and efficiency, and these expenses should be paid by the common council, property holders and insurance companies, who have risks here. The latter would doubtless contribute liberally.

If these clubs have not sufficient numerical strength, they could secure the services of many of our mechanics of like qualities, who are deterred, by the rules of business, from playing at ball, but would take time to play on a fire.

P.

P. S.—I learn that the Salem pump man makes a pump which he will warrant to work well, without repairs, for two years. Our pump contractor manages, after ten days hard work, to make our pumps work very well for four or five days, and as a general thing two-thirds of them are almost worthless and entirely unreliable in case of fire. P.

National Thanksgiving

The following is the proclamation of the President alluded to in the telegraph column on Tuesday:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES—A PROCLAMATION.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, has been pleased to vouchsafe to us, as a people, another year of that national life, which is an indispensable condition of peace, security and progress. That year, moreover, has been crowned with many peculiar blessings. The civil war that recently closed among us has not been anywhere re-opened. Foreign intervention has ceased to excite alarm or apprehension; intrusive pestilence has been benignly mitigated; domestic tranquility has improved; sentiments of conciliation have largely prevailed, and affections of loyalty and patriotism have been widely revived; our fields have yielded quite abundantly; our mining industry has been richly rewarded, and we have been allowed to extend our Railroad system far into the interior recesses of the Country; while our commerce has resumed its customary activity in foreign seas. These great national blessings demand a national acknowledgement.

Now therefore, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby recommend that Thursday, the 29th day of November next, be set apart and be observed everywhere in the several States and Territories of the United States, by the people thereof, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, with due remembrance that "in His temple doth every man speak of His Honor."

I recommend, also, that on the same solemn occasion, they do humbly and honestly implore Him to grant to our National Councils, and to our whole people, that Divine wisdom which alone can lead any nation into the ways of all good.

In offering these national thanksgivings, praises and supplications, we have the Divine assurance that "the Lord remaineth a King forever." Them that are meek shall He guide in judgment, and such as are gentle shall He learn His way. The Lord shall give strength to His people; and the Lord shall give to His people the blessing of peace."

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1866, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-first.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:
WM. H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

The Endorsement of the Constitutional Amendment by Oregon Expunged.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—A dispatch from Salem, Oregon, states that in the House of Assembly yesterday, Mr. Humason offered a series of resolutions declaring that the action of the House in ratifying the Constitutional amendment before the admission of members from Grant county was fraudulent, and by the aid of one "Union" member, the resolution was adopted—yeas 24, nays 23. The Secretary of State was then requested to transmit a copy of the resolutions to the Secretary of State at Washington. Further action will be had to-morrow.

The Delaware Gazette gives the full vote of the elections in that State on Tuesday for inspectors. The conservative majority in the State is 1,686.

WHO CAN TELL

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too potent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our AMERICAN Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Geerick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered,

PETER R. DAVIS,
Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
